As we have discussed, I have met with all the parties in this case, both young men and their grandmothers and the victim and his mother. When asked to relate what happened, each young man, including the victim, told basically the same story, so the issue of honesty and responsibility were addressed.

The victim and his mother do not wish to proceed with the RJL process or prosecution of this case. They both said they felt that the boys meeting with RJL facilitators and telling the truth was enough to address the playground incident.

I will inform Laniesha Watkins, the victim's mother, that you will be contacting her to verify that this is the action that she wishes to take.

Please let me know if you have any further questions.
